

This Naturally Innocent field blend is a chance to push the boundaries of white wine making. A complex and textural style that harnesses natural wine making techniques while keeping all the fun and drink-ability of Innocent Bystander.

SMELLS OF

Fresh melon and juicy lemon.

TASTES LIKE

Rich and textural white wine showing stone fruit, apricot, pineapple all wrapped in a savoury dry finish.

GOES WITH

Gambas Pizza

Charcuterie Board

Grilled sardines on bruschetta and sun
drenched picnics

WINE MAKING STUFF

The high altitude King Valley saw plenty of rain leading into harvest. It cleared just in time for vintage and led to a mild season providing terrific acidity.

- Single vineyard upper King Valley
- Harvested by machine in one day
- 1/3 each Albarino, Pinot Gris and Chardonnay
- Co-fermentation to improve texture
- Held in tank on lees to increase palate weight
- No oak influence to ensure natural flavours flow
- No filtration
- Alc/Vol: 13.5%
- Vegan friendly
- Style: Floral and textural
- Cellaring: Up to 3 years